

Music in the Mountains
Evening Concert Series —
Free Admission

Schedule of Performers:

Saturday, July 10: Big House Radio (2010 winner of Battle of the Bands)

Saturday, July 17: Jakleg (local favorites featuring acoustic blues)

Saturday, July 24: The Caribbean Cowboys (perfect summer band)

Saturday, July 31: Carolina Bluegrass Boys (need I say more?)

Saturday, August 7: The Rye Holler Boys (incredibly talented local group)

Saturday, August 14: Lee Knight (laid back acoustic sounds featuring Cherokee flute & more)

Saturday, August 21: Vertigo Jazz Project (who doesn't like jazz?)

Saturday, August 28: Smoky Mountain Melodies (local couple; great country standards)

Saturday, September 4: The Rib Tips (unique bluegrass sounds – excellent fiddle)

Saturday, September 11: The Heaven Seekers (an evening of gospel to mark the 9/11 anniversary)

Saturday, September 18: The Rye Holler Boys (our locals can't get enough of these guys)

Saturday, September 25: Larry Barnett and Friends (Grandpa's Music owner & music instructor)

Saturday, October 2: Big House Radio (2010 winner of Battle of the Bands)

Saturday, October 9: Mountain Dew-It (easy country sounds)

Saturday, October 16: Boogertown Gap (one of a kind folk, bluegrass, and country sounds)

Saturday, October 23: The Barn Cats (local group featuring mandolin, fiddle, banjo & guitar)

Saturday, October 30: Elvis (Chris Monteith brings "The King" back to life in style)

Where: Great Smoky Mountains Railroad Depot, Everett Street, Bryson City

When: 6:30 – 8pm

For more information: 828-488-3681, 800-867-9246, www.greatsmokies.com